

THE WINNERS

Elsie J. (Titus) Martin

This is such a lovely day
It's nice so many people
Came to play

No one is willing to give up
When two people
Want to make trump

There is plenty of coffee
And plenty of food
It helps to put every one
In a good mood

Finally one
Will give up to the other
To keep on bidding
Is to much bother

We are seated four at a table
Which most of the time
Is not too stable

If you have some accs, a double marriage
And a pinochle too

The person on the left of the dealer has first bid as he tries
To keep his cards well hid

Your opponents might as well hang it up
As this card game is through
